To answer your first question, we're planning to release it in February.

Street-level photos would be awesome – high-pedestrian activity in parks or retail areas a plus. If you have a skyline photo that can't be passed on, send it also but would like to move away from that if possible.

Hey Joanne – can you give us a sense of what type of images you'd like? What's the style, message, etc you want to communicate? I've copied Kevin so we can figure out what would be best.

Hey Nick – We want to dress up the Beacon Report with photos of each of the BIDs. Do you have a few to share of the DCBID area that are at street level?
